Tyler – I've received approval to release to a non-travel member as long as it is understood that we have no fees outside of this structure with the exception of uniforms hotel and travel expenses to tournaments. ALL other fees are included in the total structure. Please GO TO THIS LINK to find out what is included in the fee structure.

AGE	YEAR	Player Fee - full year
U9	2009	$600
U10	2008	$600
U11	2007	$1,150
U12	2006	$1,150
U13	2005	$1,250
U14	2004	$1,250
U15	2003	$1,250
U16	2002	$1,250
U17	2001	$1,350
U18	2000	$1,350
U19/20	1999	$1,350

Please forward us a copy of your research. It might interesting to see what you find. What is the research question you are using on which to base your findings?

Stephanie

I'll talk to my travel director about releasing fees. Unfortunately, when fees are published, that is exactly what happens. Clubs try to undercut which is why the fees are not public. I'll see what she says.

Stephanie

Hi Stephanie,

Thanks for the quick reply. I'm looking specifically for your travel fees. The information I've collected thus far has included fees for registration, coaching (if a club pays its coaches), and any other team-specific fees. I've excluded amounts for uniforms and travel. If you have it broken out like that, it would be very helpful.

But, just to be clear, my goal is to present a broad analysis of the entire landscape and identify trends—not to pit any one club against another.

Regards,
Tyler Richardett

U10 Revolution Academy (date of birth, August 1, 2007 – July 31, 2009): Academy registration requires acceptance based on a tryout, is more competitive and is considered to be the developmental division to prepare players for possible Travel division if selected and wish to join. Coaches are required to hold at least an "E" certification. Games are 50 minutes long and are typically played on Saturdays with some game play taking place during the week. There are no more than 3 Stafford Soccer sanctioned events per week for this age group and division. Teams are formed based on player skill and ability in order to most-equally balance teams. Subject: 2017–18 Travel Soccer Fee Schedule

Hi Krista,

I'm currently working on a research project at George Mason University that focuses on competitive youth soccer in the state of Virginia. Would you be willing to send me Stafford Soccer Club's fee schedule for the 2017–18 travel season?

Thanks in advance,
Tyler Richardett
